

Council notes:

That minutes from National Council meetings can provide vital information to Sabbatical Officers who are not able to attend National Council.

Council notes with concern:

That receiving minutes with the rest of National Council documentation can be too late, for those not able to attend, to engage in national campaigns or events.

Council mandates:

The President to ensure that draft National Council minutes are circulated to sabbatical officers no more than 5 working days after National Council.