CODE OF CONDUCT

USI PINK TRAINING IS AN ENVIRONMENT THAT IS CONDUCIVE TO EXPLORING AND LEARNING ABOUT ISSUES RELATING TO SEXUALITY AND GENDER IDENTITY. IT’S OF UTMOST IMPORTANCE THAT USI PINK TRAINING IS A SAFE SPACE FOR ALL DELEGATES AND THAT EVERYONE CAN FEEL COMFORTABLE TO BE THEMSELVES.

ALL DELEGATES ARE ASKED TO AGREE TO AND ABIDE BY THE FOLLOWING CODE OF CONDUCT:

• EVERY DELEGATE MUST BE RESPECTFUL TOWARDS FELLOW DELEGATES, SPEAKERS AND THE STAFF IN THE HOSTELS AND COLLEGE
• PLEASE BE AWARE AND RESPECT EACH DELEGATE’S BOUNDARIES- NO ONE SHOULD FEEL OR BE PRESSURED INTO PARTAKING IN ANY ACTIVITY THAT THEY ARE NOT COMFORTABLE WITH
• EACH DELEGATION LEADER IS ULTIMATELY RESPONSIBLE FOR THOSE IN THEIR GROUP
• IF ANYONE IS FOUND WITH ILLEGAL SUBSTANCES, THEY WILL BE SENT HOME IMMEDIATELY, FURTHERMORE APPROPRIATE ACTION WILL BE TAKEN
• EVERY DELEGATE IS ASKED TO RESPECT THE PEOPLE SHARING THEIR ROOM IN THE HOSTELS.
• PLEASE SHOW RESPECT TO PEOPLE’S PREFERRED PRONOUNS E.G. HE/SHE/THEY

• NOBODY HAS TO SHARE THEIR SEXUAL ORIENTATION OR GENDER IDENTITY AT ANY POINT AND NOBODY SHOULD MAKE ANYONE FEEL THEY HAVE TO CHOOSE OR DISCLOSE THEIR IDENTITY, PERSONAL INFORMATION OR DO ANYTHING THAT THEY ARE NOT COMFORTABLE WITH
• THERE IS NO SMOKING INSIDE THE HOSTELS
• DEROGATORY LANGUAGE TOWARDS ANY SEXUALITY OR GENDER IDENTITY WILL NOT BE TOLERATED AT PINK TRAINING
• REMEMBER THAT NOT EVERYONE IS ‘OUT’ AT PINK TRAINING SO PLEASE DON’T TAG ANYONE IN PHOTOS WITHOUT THEIR PERMISSION
• DELEGATES ARE ASKED TO CLEAN UP AFTER THEMSELVES IN NUIG AND IN THE HOSTELS
• DELEGATES ARE ENCOURAGED TO PARTICIPATE AND BE ON TIME FOR WORKSHOPS
• DELEGATES MUST RESPECT OTHER DELEGATE’S BOUNDARIES; NO ONE SHOULD FEEL THAT THEY MUST ENGAGE IN ANY BEHAVIOUR OR ACTIONS IN WHICH THEY ARE NOT COMFORTABLE WITH
• INAPPROPRIATE AND / OR INVASIVE TOUCHING, WITHOUT INFORMED AND EXPLICIT CONSENT, WILL NOT BE TOLERATED
A chara,

Welcome to Pink Training 2018!

I am absolutely honoured to welcome you to NUI Galway; to an event that bursts with energy and vibrancy; one that celebrates our diversity, and has been doing so for 26 years.

Pink Training was founded in 1992, the same year homosexuality was decriminalised in Ireland. It began as an event to raise awareness of Lesbian, Gay and Bisexual issues and give officers the knowledge and understanding of what LGB students needed and what practical things could be done on campuses and further afield to improve the lives of those students.

Since then, the event has extended to over 300 delegates from colleges all over Ireland and has grown to reflect the diversity that exists within our community through the variety of workshops and content it offers.

Pink Training is a space where students come together to share their experiences, learn from others, and engage in workshops about LGBTQI+ issues, rights and activism. Whether this be your first Pink Training or not, you will always leave with a greater knowledge and understanding of the community and come up with ways to improve the lives of LGBTQI+ students on your campuses.

It’s important that this event is inclusive and that we think beyond the binary and respect the sexuality and gender identities of those around us. How we express ourselves and our gender is up to us, rather than the way society may have set out for us. Whether you identify with the LGBTQI+ community or you are a proud ally, you are welcome here. Express yourself how you see fit to and remember, there is no rush to be anyone other than who you are.

It has been an absolute privilege to organise this event as your Vice President for Equality and Citizenship for 2018/2019 and to work alongside the NUIG Students’ Union, GIGSoc, and Officer Board, who have been incredible help with the organising of this weekend.

When I first attended Pink Training in 2014, I was in my final year and I 100% thought that that was going to be my first and last Pink Training with the Union of Students in Ireland but little did I know then. I spent 3 days immersed in a place that felt like home to me. For the first time ever, I didn’t feel like an outsider. I didn’t feel judged or othered. I felt part of a community. And I most certainly didn’t want to go home.

There's a concept called a lollipop moment; it is a moment where someone said something or did something that fundamentally made your life better. I never imagined that those 3 days in Cork during what I thought was the final stretch of my time in college would have such an impact on my life. Pink Training 2014 was my lollipop moment.

The people at that event changed my life, inspired me, and empowered me. To this day many of them are still a huge positive influence in both my work and personal life.

So, my advice to you: make the most out of your Pink Training experience. Meet new people. Ask questions you don’t know the answers to. Dare to be brave. Share experiences and learn from others. You will inspire those around you because of who you are. Be you. Be bróidí.

I hope you leave Pink Training 2018 empowered and motivated to continue the fight for equality. I hope this will be an experience you will hold dearly in your heart for many years to come. I know I do.

Le bród,

AISLING CUSACK - SHE/HER
One of USI's out and proud, Aisling is a veteran of Pink Training. Retired from the "scene" but we all know the George will always have a place in her heart. Don't be fooled by her youthful looks, this lady dances like she's had a hip replacement and can't eat a biscuit without tucking a napkin in first! A political lefty who insists she's always right - you'll see her at the bar drinking G & T's in the night.

@ashQzack
@ashqzack

DAMIEN MCCLEAN - HE/HIM
Damien, also known as Gay-mien or Day-hey-hey-mien, it's fair to say he's not straight. He's this year's Vice-President for Welfare, because he's well-fair, and he has enough condoms to recreate the house from 'Up!'. By trade, he's a boring mathematician, so if anyone spots him heading outside, please usher him back into a quiet place indoors, for fear that he might interact with the public.

@USI_welfare
@damien_im_straight_mcclean

LORNA FITZPATRICK - SHE/HER
The first thing you need to know about me is that I am an absolute Christmas fanatic, like in fairness, it is the most wonderful time of the year! My hobbies include chanting with (or without!) a megaphone, sipping an odd glass of vino and attempting to dance but I can't so lessons welcome!!

@USI_South
@lornafitz3

COLM O'HALLORAN - HE/HIM
Hey, I'm Colm - I'm the USI VP for the Dublin Region. I just graduated from Trinity College Dublin with a degree in Irish Studies. My interests include coffee, music, activism and scrolling through Twitter on my phone. If you ever need me or want to chat then pop me an email

@USI_Dublin
@ColmFelix
ROISÍN O DONOVAN - SHE/HER
Roisin is the Welfare officer for the DIT Students' Union and was also heavily involved in the DIT LGBTQ+ Society.

Things she loves - cycling, travelling, coffee, hikes, food, groovy socks and girls (because all lesbians hate men right?)

@ditsu_welfare
@rorothehoehoe

MICHELLE BYRNE - SHE/HER
Michelle is always campaigning about something. Some might even say it’s her job. USI VP for Campaigns. She never stops talking about Waterford. We think she went to college there once. [We can’t actually remember - she’s been around the student movement for a while!] A cheese addict. Big fan of wine and vegetables too. Not necessarily together but she’d try anything! Great at telling bizarre stories about her life but terrible at writing Pink Training bios. Or tinder bios for that matter.

@michelle_byrne_
@michelle_byrne_

RÓISÍN SHERIDAN - SHE/HER
IT Carlow SU’S Welfare & Equality Officer Róisín likes to spend her time rescuing animals and trying to pet as many strange cats as physically possible (while hoping they are strays so she can take them all home). Róisín is an out and proud garlic enthusiast, and is delighted to be at her third Pink Training.

@nisior23
@nisior23

DARREN MALONE - HE/HIM
A Born and Bred Carlow young fella but now considers himself a Waterford man at heart. Darren is an absolute student movement hack as he is a previous two term part time officer and is the current Vice President for Welfare in WIT Students' Union. He is likely to be found handing out condoms, giving out about the costs of student rent or scrolling aimlessly through Instagram. Partial to a boogie, easily wooed by a chicken fillet roll and he can’t go more than 10 minutes without his lip balm.

@darrenmalone96
@marrendalone
OLIVIA POTTER HUGHES - SHE/HER
NUS-USI President, USI & NUS UK Officer, Love Equality activist, Pro-Choice, Pro-EU, angry feminist, socialist, humanist, vegetarian and Domestic zookeeper to 9 pets

@ObvsOlivia

MEGAN REILLY - SHE/HER
Originally from Drogheda (the biggest town in Ireland and she'll fight anyone who says otherwise), Megan has learned over the years to put up with the rain in the West. The current President of NUIGSU, a former Welfare Officer and Equality officer, this is her third Pink Training. She is fairly delighted to be welcoming it back to her home college, as it's an event that started her journey in the Student Movement. You’ll find her over the weekend being relentlessly mocked by her SU team for the way she says ‘cook’ and ‘book’ (the correct way), or talking all things veggie, feminist and queer.

@nagemtweets

BRANDON WALSH - HE/HIM
Brandon is the Societies’ Chairperson on NUI Galway’s Students’ Union so he spends a large portion of his time reading constitutions and crying. He has mastered the “ArtHoe” aesthetic even though he’s horrible at art and he also eats way too much dairy for someone who’s lactose intolerant.

@lacktoesintoddlerants @lacktoesintoddlerants

BARRY CLOHESSY - HE/HIM
Barry, VP for the Border, Midlands and West welcomes you to the best region in USI! Being a very proud Cork man there’s no doubt he’ll reminded you he’s from the rebel county over and over. After just surviving a quarter life crisis and now at the young age of 26, Barry is at his 3rd Pink Training. Barrys best features are his shite sence of humor, luscious grey hair and of course that he's from the real capital.

@USI_bmw @barryclohessy
Síona Cahill - She/Her
Síona is gay. Super gay. Even if she went to her first pink training as an enthusiastic ally, she came back a raging lesbian - and proud of it. She’s now also (more notably) the President of the Union of Students in Ireland, having been VP Equality & Citizenship for two years and Maynooth SU VP Welfare & Equality for two years before that (because she loves equality, and fighting injustice while wearing a red power suit). She was appointed to the steering committee of the world’s first National LGBTI+ Youth Strategy by Minister Katherine Zappone, and won a GALA for her work on LGBTI student advocacy. She’s also ginger and from Longford, both of which are very important to her.

@AnTaobhRua @AnTaobhRua

Aoife Ní Dhéisigh - She/Her
Is í Aoife an Leas-Uachtarán don Ghaeilge le AMLÉ, is é an chéad LU Gaeilge lálainnseartha riamh. Is as iarthaí Chorcaí í agus ceapann sí nach bhfuil aon áit níos deise ná Corcaigh. Her lifelong dream is to present the weather on TG4.

@USI_Gaeilge @aoife_deasy

Dean O'Reilly - He/Him
The horcrux you never asked for, Dean is the Chairperson of DCU LGBT+ and has fulfilled this role for just under two years.

Coming out the day before Pink Training ‘16, the weekend holds a special place in his heart. What’s Gaga’s best album? (Pssst...it’s ARTPOP)

@accidentalrainbow @accidentalrainbow

Niamh Grennan - She/Her
Vice President for Welfare and Equality IADTSU. Former LGBTQ+ Rights Officer.
Loves long power walks on the beach, a good protest and will challenge anyone to a dance off.
Dislikes the patriarchy, heteronormative assumptions and cheese (except on pizza)

Andrew Forde - He/Him
Andrews from the Wesht, he thinks postgrads are the Besht, sure ask him more to find out the Resht
CLARE AUSTICK - SHE/HER

Clare (without an “i”) is the Welfare & Equality Officer of NUI Galway Students’ Union. Her life consists of cats (cause they’re purr fect) the colour pink, rainbows, unicorns and glitter. She is most likely to pull a door that says “push” and consume 4 cups of a coffee a day.

OISÍN HASSAN - HE/HIM

USI HQ’s resident Nordie. From Derry, NOT Donegal. Does the nerdy stuff usually, but Siorna does try to make me seem less boring (for reference see a voter reg video of me struggling with a set of earphones). Loves cheese, Lindt chocolate bars, Nordie things, annoying senior managers, quality assurance, and being a Nordie.

PLENARY SESSION

SPEAKER: EVGENY SHTORN

Evgeny Shtorn is a civil society activist, organiser and LGBT researcher from Russia. He worked for years in a leading St Petersburg think tank, the Center for Independent Social Research, while also collaborating with such human-rights NGOs as the Russian LGBT Network and Memorial. In 2018, he was forced to leave Russia and claim asylum. His field of work includes hate crimes against LGBT people, racism and postcolonial theory.

As an activist he is now trying to create awareness among Irish LGBT community and organizations about the situation with gender based discrimination in Direct Provision where LGBTI and victims of domestic violence are suffering the double isolation. For these purposes, he created a grassroots initiative ‘Queer Diaspora’ in support of people who are seeking asylum.
SINÉAD RUANE - SHE/HER
Board Member of AMACH!
When I came out at 16 I was always the gay girl within the gang. This changed when I went to my first GiGSoc event in November of 2015 when I was in second year college. I joined the committee as an OCM and shortly after was elected as the New Members Liaison Officer. It was in 2015 that I went to my first PT and to say it was eye opening would be an understatement. I met so many amazing people at my first pink training that inspired me to get more involved with the community. Later that year I ran for Auditor of GiGSoc and was elected for the following two years. I enjoyed my time as Auditor and seeing the “Baby Gays” blossom into LGBTQ Activists was so rewarding knowing that as a committee we were able to provide this space for them. Coming Out is an important moment for us and I’m looking forward to running this space at this year PT.

NEIL WILSON
AIDS west I Western Region Drug and Alcohol Task Force
Neil has worked as the education support worker for the Western Region Drug and alcohol force for over a decade. Working with AIDS West, he has a particular interest in the connection between psychoactive substances and sexual activity.

ANNA COSGRAVE - SHE/HER
Repeal Project I MotsBox
Anna Cosgrave - works as an assistant to Senator Lynn Ruane & sits on the European Parliament, S&D panel as the Irish representative for feminist political campaigners. She founded REPEAL project, an abortion rights outerwear initiative that supported Together For Yes, The Abortion Rights Campaign & Not At Home during the 2018 abortion referendum. Anna was nominated as one of Ashokas 10 Irish changemakers. In 2019 she will launch MotsBox, a socio-political media site & community, with a team of four. She is a new contributor of (Gay Community News) & thinks you are deadly.

@anacosgrave

DAVY QUINLIVAN - HE/HIM
Davy is a Queer activist with a particular interest in youth. Campaigning with Student’s Unions, USI, YES EQUALITY, Together For Yes, ACT UP in Galway, Dublin and other places over the years has shaped his experience within the queer sphere of Ireland and helped shape his politics and interests. He also recently returned to education so is feeling very Drew Barrymore in ‘Never Been Kissed’ to be talking at this, having attended Pink Training himself over 10 years ago!

LAOIGHSEACH NÍ CHOISTEALBHA - SHE/HER - SÍ/Í
NUI Galway
Laoighseach (it rhymes with ‘Taoiseach’) was the NUIG SU Oifigeach na Gaeilge (15/16) and the USI LU don Ghaeilge (17/18). She worked with BelongTo and TENI in 2018 to publish An Foclóir Aiteach (The Queer Dictionary) which was awarded a European Language Label Award in September 2018 for language innovation. Upon leaving USI, Laoighseach was employed by NUI Galway, her alma mater, where she works as a Irish Research Council Laureate Scholar on ‘Republic of Conscience: Human Rights and Modern Irish Poetry’. She co-presents the radio show, ‘Bad Feminem’, on Flirt FM, with Megan Reilly. Her favourite crisps are Meanies.

@laoighseach_Rua
ALANNAH MURRAY - THEY/THEM
Disabled Women Ireland
Alannah Murray is a postgraduate researcher and disabled activist. They have spoken on the TEDx stage about disability and society, and they were a regular fixture in the campaign to Repeal the 8th Amendment. Their work in activism over the past number years has allowed them the opportunity to bring about change, being one of the co-founders of Disabled Women Ireland. They are passionate about advocating for change through the social model of disability, being particularly conscious of access to social spaces as a young disabled Bi person.

@Wheelie_Happy

CATALINA VIERU - SHE/HER
Lover of ARTivism, chocolate and tattoos, Catalina is a polyamorous pansexual living in Dublin. She is an online admin for the Poly community in Ireland and is regularly organizing support meetings and social events for poly people. She likes exploring the human mind and the relationship dynamics between people.

@owl_b_here

GILLIAN MCINERNEY - THEY/THEM
29. Student, DCU. Queer AF. Feminist. Facilitator of workshops. Stationary nerd. Professional procurer of podcasts. Self-care advocate. Ravenclaw. Cactus parent. The one with the colouring. Gillian has guest lectured on LGBTQ+ issues and given countless workshops on a variety of topics, their passions being mental health, feminism and sexual empowerment. They have been facilitating workshops for 10 years and trained as a youth and community worker in Liberties College. Gillian created Alphabet Soup during a fit of procrastination and a desire to create a good resource for anyone curious or confused by LGBTQ+ terminology.

ANNA KEOGH - SHE/HER
Anna is a Relationships and Sexuality Educator who holds a degree in Psychology and a masters in Sexuality Studies. She sits on the board of directors with ShoutOut, an LGBTQIA+ charity, and this is her third year at Pink Training. Anna likes her workshops to be interactive, fun, and a little bit filthy. She has a “no filter” approach to teaching sex ed so if you ask a question, be prepared to receive the honest, no frills, factual answer.

@bananas_sex_ed

OSCAR JAMES - HE/THEY
Oscar is a nerd with far too many types of tea in his tiny kitchen. He enjoys going on prolonged wiki dives into oblivion, and finding the coolest of music. Every day he tries to find out something new to understand the world more, and hopes that he can help you do the same.

LISA CANNON - SHE/HER
Lisa Cannon is a 26 year old freckle faced Bisexual from the Hills of Donegal who has been living in Galway for nearly 4 years now. She has been working in Teach Solais LGBT+ Resource Centre as a community development worker for 2 years coordinating and facilitating projects and activities such as ‘LGBT Social Drop-in’ ‘Queer Woman’s Group’ and providing information and support to the LGBT+ community in the West.
LESLEY FITZPATRICK - SHE/THEY
Lesley enjoys a challenge (albeit usually a drinking game) so what better way to introduce her than with ‘two truths, one lie’? (1) peer-led activism and education lead to social and political change; (2) things cannot be changed for the better; and (3) young people are society's most valuable asset. Having spoken at the same podium as the Taoiseach; sat at the decision-making table for the National LGBTI+ Youth Strategy and having dedicated ten years to various LGBTQ+ groups, this young, inclusive feminist refuses to accept that things can’t be changed for the better, and epitomises the fact that you can change people’s lives if all you do is find inspiration and believe in yourself and the people around you.

@LesleyFitzzz

ALICE HARTIGAN & DYLAN HENNESSY- SHE & HIM
Alice & Dylan are queer cis/trans couple from Dublin. Both are graduates of IADT, they met in their QSA LGBT+ Society and have been in a relationship for the last 5 years. Both were heavily involved in their LGBTQ+ society in IADT and both headed the committee during their four years in college. Alice set up the Trans* Partners support group on Facebook and both have been active in their communities throughout the last few years. They have given workshops at Pink Training in the past, discussing the ins and outs, and ups and downs, of dating and relationships as transgender and cisgender people. They aim to provide a safe space for questions and encourage group discussions on this topic.

SHARON NOLAN - SHE/HER
Bi+ Ireland
Sharon is a queer activist from the West of Ireland. She is a Galway co-ordinator for Bi+ Ireland, volunteers with the LGBT Ireland and Galway Community Pride, is an avid pro-choice campaigner, and an outspoken feminist. She’s also an election candidate for the 2019 local election in Galway, which she is equally excited and terrified for!

@shar_nolan

STEPHANIE FOGARTY - SHE/HER
Ms Gay Ireland
I am the current Ms Gay Ireland (18/19), a former VP Welfare in CITSU and a long time activist and volunteer among my local LGBTQI+ community. My main things I like to focus on is Mental Health but also Body Positivity. #JustBeYou and embrace everything about yourself. I am also a massive Spongebob fan and I love to have a wiggle on the dance floor :D

@minxystephanie

LAURA HARMON - SHE/HER
National Women’s Council of Ireland
Laura Harmon is the Women in Leadership Coordinator of the National Women's Council of Ireland and works to reform structures and culture that will enable women's progress in politics, boardrooms and senior positions in the public and private sector. She was the Mobilisation Team Lead for the Together for Yes referendum campaign. Her work with Together for Yes included organising a national conversations tour that visited every county in Ireland, coordinating the Get Out the Vote phase of the campaign as well as working closely with many local TFF groups. Laura was president of the Union of Students in Ireland in 2014/2015 during the marriage equality referendum in which USI played a leading role. She was Equality and Citizenship Officer with USI from 2012-2014 and had the privilege of organising Pink Training twice. Laura is a former board member of the National LGBT Federation (NLF).

He has helped develop the man2man campaign and delivered National Peer Educator Training annually for the last 4 years to help develop the facilitation skills of young LGBTI+ around the country and is currently in his final year studying Community and Youth Work in Maynooth University. He created the In The Know program which targets young GBT men aged 17-25 to arm them with the skills they need to protect themselves in the areas of HIV, STI’s and personal development.

ALEX COUGHLAN - THEY/THEM
Alex is NUIG SU’s current (and first) Gender and LGBT+ Rights Officer. Being non-binary, bisexual and asexual, they have been known to refer to themselves as the holy trinity of invisibility. They have worked both within NUIG, and the wider Galway LGBT+ community, delivering workshops and talking about being queer. They have enjoyed every moment of queer, feminist, pro-choice activism since they got to college, and have no notion of stopping soon. They also love the oxford comma, chocolate, and student engagement policy!

ROB PARTRIDGE - HE/HIM
LGBT Ireland/National LGBT Helpline | Amach | Galway Pride
Rob is overweight, overworked and over Brexit. Through life experience Rob has mastered the art of self-care and looking after his mental health and has spent years passing this knowledge on to others. He recruits and trains people for LGBT Ireland’s national LGBT Helpline and is a board member of LGBT Ireland and Amach! LGBT Galway and founder of Radio Pride. Rob is booked to give talks around the world on his experiences of mental health.

@UrsusRob

REN MCGUICKEN - HE/HIM
The Rainbow Project
Ren is the Relationships and Sexuality Education Officer for The Rainbow Project, Northern Ireland’s largest LGBT+ organisation. He is passionate about teaching people the skills and knowledge they need to have the healthiest, happiest sex they can, and is very excited that he gets to do that as his day job as well as pestering his friends with all the cool penis facts he knows! When he isn’t in work talking about healthy relationships he’s on his sofa in his dressing gown obsessing about how to keep his own relationships healthy; especially his relationship with his cat, Cujo, who just doesn’t care.

CHRIS NOONE - HE/HIM
National LGBT Federation/Bi+ Ireland/NUI Galway
Chris is a lecturer at the School of Psychology in NUI Galway. He has contributed to research on a wide range of topics broadly related to health and wellbeing. Chris has been involved in activism for many years and is currently Chair of the Research Sub-Committee of the National LGBT Federation and a coordinator for Bi+ Ireland. He has also contributed to the development of the recently established LGBT Staff Network at NUI Galway. In his spare time, he's a lefty geek who loves playing guitar and football.

@chris_noone_

CLARA BARRY - SHE/HER
Clara is an intersex activist promoting a movement for bodily autonomy and justice. Her goal is to deconstruct the dangerous myths that lead to violations of intersex people's human rights. If you've ever wondered what the 'I' in LGBTQI+ really means, and want to learn in a non-judgemental, from-the-top format then this is a talk worth attending.

ANNIE HOEY - SHE/HER
Annie is the former president of USI, having served two terms previously as the VP Equality and Citizenship. She attended her first Pink Training in 2008 as a baby-bi which set then her off on to her path of activism and general patriarchy smashing. She is quite the referendum aficionado, having worked on both marriage equality and the recent abortion referendum, and currently works in politics with women and underrepresented candidates. In her spare time (a rarity) Annie like to fold, fold, fold and will gladly fold and organise your cupboards for you. Feminism, bossy blazers and her two beloved lurchers, Polly and Raisin, are her jam.

HOW WE REACH ZERO
ROBBIE LAWLER
HIV rates in Ireland have never been higher. Men who have sex with men are disproportionately affected and account for roughly 50% of the new HIV diagnosis. In this workshop, we will discuss what the LGBT+ community is doing to tackle rising HIV rates and how we plan to reach zero!

GAY AND ANGRY
IN NORTHERN IRELAND
CONOR LOUGHAN
This session will provide a brief overview of LGBT+ rights in Northern Ireland, including what it's like growing up there and what students in the rest of Ireland can do to help the fight for equality in the North.

TRANS
ANDREW MARTIN
What does it mean to be transgender? Andy will be taking us through an important guide to gender and identity, and an introduction to the issues trans people face in Ireland.

WORKING FOR THE LGBT+ COMMUNITY
/PROFESSIONAL QUEER
LISA CANNON
How I work with the LGBT+ Community as my job, the things I do on a daily basis in relation to working with the LGBT+ community and working within a queer safe space for the queer community, (and discuss how people could apply this to their own future careers.

The session will discuss Teach Solais and its background and what we do do and the activities, supports, events and services it offers. I will discuss the importance of queer safe spaces and how we have to work as a community to keep them.

WHAT NEXT
FOR LGBT HUMAN RIGHTS IN IRELAND?
PADRAIG RICE
What next for LGBT human rights in Ireland? Recently IGLA Europe gave Ireland a score of 52% for LGBT human rights and policy protections. That's 15th in Europe and the lowest in Western Europe. How do we collectively improve that? Who is setting and driving the post marriage referendum LGBT+ political agenda? What should be on that agenda? How do we work together to achieve it? This will be an interactive workshop aimed at teasing out what are the pressing human rights issues for LGBT+ students. Is it hate crime legislation, equal parental rights or a new intersex law? How do we achieve that? Come have your say.

THE INTERSECTION:
DISABILITY & SEXUALITY
ALANNAH MURRAY
In this workshop, participants will go on an interactive journey into the life of an LGBT disabled person as they try to navigate LGBT social spaces. We will explore just how accessible your favourite LGBT spaces are; from getting there, to getting in the door, all the way down to buying their drinks and going to the jacks! We’ll myth bust some of the common misconceptions around disability and sexuality, discuss the importance to inclusive LGBT social spaces, and consider what we can do to improve the spaces around us for disabled LGBT people.

SEXUAL CONSENT
ANNA & BELLA
A frank and honest discussion about consent, how to give it, how to make sure you have it and how it just makes for better sex! Consent is sexy, consent is mandatory, and we're going to wade through the "grey areas" and talk about what you need to ensure you've got consent.
WORKSHOPS

HOW DO WE SEE THE WORLD?
BREAKING DOWN OUR STEREOTYPES
CAMERON KEIGHRON
Everyone has prejudices and unconscious biases towards people all around us. However, these become a problem when we act upon them. This workshop is designed to explore our own unconscious bias towards the world, how we can work through them and what can we as a community do practically to shape the community around us. (working description so far)

HAVE YOU EVER SENT A HOLE PIC?
DEAN O'REILLY
With the proliferation of Snapchat and other social media services, exchanging nude photos has become commonplace. Dean opens the conversation on the impact of this culture on self-esteem and body image, dating as a gay man, career opportunities and more.

LGBT EQUALITY: WHATS LOVE GOT TO DO WITH IT?
BELLA FITZPATRICK
A workshop analyzing the narratives surrounding the LGBT rights movement, how they can empower and disempower LGBT people and how best to move forward.

ACE & ARO
101
OSCAR JAMES
This workshop will break down all the different terminology used to describe people on the asexual and aromantic spectrum, and asks you to look into your own experiences to understand what it's like to be asexual or aromantic. Expect the way you view relationships and sexuality to be questioned!

IS POLITICS FOR YOU?
SHARON NOLAN
Are you looking for your next campaign after Repeal? Are you an activist and considering getting involved in politics? Do you want to learn more about the Irish political landscape? If so, this event may be for you! No experience required, and no commitment necessary - feel free to come to listen, discuss and ask any questions.

MOBILISING TO WIN - CAMPAIGNING MASTERCLASS
LAURA HARMON
This session is a campaigning masterclass which will look at some of the ingredients needed to organise and run a successful campaign. The workshop will focus on key learning from the 2018 Together for Yes campaign and how that campaign mobilised voters from all walks of life. The campaign will also explore the success of the 2015 marriage equality referendum and the leading role that students played.

COMING OUT WORKSHOP
Facilitated session on the coming out process where people can share their coming out stories if they wish. This is safe and confidential space.

OPEN TO ALL IN THE LGBTI+ COMMUNITY

TRANS AND NON-BINARY SEXUAL HEALTH
REN MCGUICKEN
Information on STIs, contraception, and consent with a focus on transgender people.

CLOSED SPACE FOR TRANSGENDER (INCLUDING NON-BINARY) PEOPLE
WORKSHOPS

TRANSGENDER HEALTHCARE:
A GUIDE + Q&A
NOAH HALPIN
This session will include a brief description of where we currently are in Ireland when it comes to trans healthcare, a guide as to how one may begin to access treatments, as well as future plans for trans healthcare in Ireland. There will also be a Q&A session, where no questions are off limits and conversation encouraged.

MOST APPROPRIATE FOR TRANSGENDER/NON-BINARY PEOPLE. HOWEVER, EVERYONE IS MOST WELCOME.

QUEER
ANNA KEOGH
This workshop is designed to fill in the gaps left by a very straight and narrow school sex ed. It involves some group work, a bit of brainstorming and maybe some blushing. A fun education experience for all who want a bit more info on the sexy side of queer sex.

HEADS UP
POSITIVE MENTAL HEALTH FOR TRANS PEOPLE
ANDREW MARTIN
An interactive workshop for trans people around positive mental health. In this Heads Up workshop we will explore techniques and tools to encourage resilience in everyday life for trans people. We'll also look at practical ways to develop self care.

CLOSED SPACE FOR THE TRANS COMMUNITY

BEING
How to best be the support to someone you know (or you don’t know) is in the trans community not only by your words, but by your understanding and your actions. We'll also discuss the steps you can take to help make your college a more inclusive place for trans students.

This workshop will serve as a forum for students, society committees, and SU officers to discuss and plan on ways to make their colleges more trans friendly. The aim of the workshop is to provide ideas and information on how this can be achieved, by looking at the needs and requirements of trans students on campus.

ALPHABET
SOUP
GILLIAN MCINERNEY
Alphabet Soup is the largest online collection of terminology used by and about the LGBTQ+ community. In this workshop we will explore the collection a little and discuss language and identity. Please bring all the questions you’ve wanted to ask about words and identity terms, this is a space where you can ask them. No question is stupid, no level of knowledge of LGBTQ+ terminology is assumed or required.

GOOD FOR ALLIES AND PEOPLE EXPLORING THE IDENTITIES IN THE + OF LGBTQ+.

PEACHES, Pears OR BANANAS –
LOVING YOUR SEXUAL BODY
ANNA KEOGH
This workshop aims to promote body positivity towards our sexual bodies in all aspects of sexual health including our mental, emotional and social wellbeing. Topics included are respecting your body regarding regular health checks, changing bodies, and the social acceptance of all bodies. Activities include scenarios, group work and discussions on topics such as condom resistance and how to see ourselves beyond our physical appearance.
WORKSHOPS

LGBTQIA+ WOMEN*
WHAT AFFECTS OUR WELLNESS?
LAURA LOUISE
This workshop will be a closed space for LGBTQIA+ women* to explore the issues and topics which affect our wellness, as individuals and as a community. This will be a safe and welcoming session for women* of all identities to express themselves and connect with others.

CLOSED SPACE FOR LGBTQIA+ SELF IDENTIFYING WOMEN*.

MNÁ* GRÁ
SEXUAL HEALTH
LAURA LOUISE CONDELL & SARAH SPROULE
Do you identify as a woman* or did you use to? And do you think about having sex with women*? Perhaps you already DO have sex with women*? If you interested in learning more about your own sexual health and your sexual pleasure, this interactive workshop is for you. We will support you to think about your physical sexual health, your ideas of a healthy sexual relationship, and your emotional sexual health. We will workshop consent together in a different way to how we usually learn about it.

THIS IS OPEN TO ALL PEOPLE WHO IDENTIFY AS FEMALE.

THE LANGUAGE OF ALLYSHIP
ALEX COUGHLAN
A collaborative session aimed at being an active trans ally. This will engage allies - as individuals, representatives, or leaders - in creating inclusion and acceptance in their day to day. This session is for all cis allies, regardless of their previous exposure to the trans community.

TARGETED AT CIS ALLIES

THE BISEXUAL AGENDA!
SHARON NOLAN
You’ve heard about the Gay Agenda(tm), but get ready for the Bisexual Agenda! This will be a great discussion space where we’ll be reflecting on the specific needs our wider bi+ community has, the fights and challenges the community still faces, and how we better grow and support our community.

THIS IS MAINLY TARGETED TOWARDS MEMBERS OF THE BI+ COMMUNITY, BUT EVERYONE IS WELCOME

RE-WRITE THE NARRATIVE OF GENDER
ALEX COUGHLAN
A session to look at the potential for joy and enjoyment of exploring and experiencing gender. Using lived experience to look at created narrative, and living by your own narrative. This is experienced by many trans people, and is relevant for queer people in looking at experimenting and experiencing gender con-conformity.

TRANS AND NON-CONFORMING PEOPLE MAY FIND MOST RELEVANT, OPEN TO ALL

HONEY! I CHANGED MY GENDER
NAVIGATING A TRANSGENDER RELATIONSHIP
ALICE HARTIGAN & DYLAN HENNESSY
This workshop aims to provide a space to talk about common issues facing trans* people and their partners, ranging from dating and disclosure, transitioning, to building a relationship. Additional time will be given for open discussion of issues faced by trans* people and their partners.

OPEN TO ALL BUT TARGETED TOWARDS TRANS* PEOPLE AND THEIR PARTNERS
WORKSHOPS

PRIVILEGE
IN THE LGBT+
LESLEY FITZPATRICK
We are past the days of being victims, or so we believe. Or maybe that is just for the straight looking gays. The hetero-normative L and G may be doing well, but what about the rest of the alphabet? With this workshop I want to address the hierarchy that exists even in the LGBTI+ community. I want to address the advances some areas have made and how that has led to their existence being socially accepted, however that is not the case for a lot of the LGBTI+. It is important that we use our newfound acceptance to further advance the rest of the LGBTI+

SHAPES AND SIZE
THAT MESMERIZE
STEPHANIE FOGARTY
Love Yourself, Love Others (always with consent of course). This is a space to put a stop to body shame and a start to body fame!

INTERSEX

CLARA BARRY
An informative talk on what it means to be intersex, mythbusting, and how to be an intersex ally followed by Q & Gay

HIV AND STI'S;
LEARNING THROUGH GAMES
SEÁN FRAYNE
Teaching young people the basics of STI's and HIV through the use of funny games and discussions such as STI Roulette, HIV transmission and many more.

WHY BRING YOUR WHOLE SELF TO WORK?
BECAUSE IT WORKS!
JAMES RAMSAY
A workshop that aims to empower you with the confidence and skillset to transition from university to the working world while remaining true to your authentic self. This will include real life stories, Learnings on key LGBT+ in the workplace topics (Coming out to colleagues etc.) and an candid and safe Q&A.

MENTAL HEALTH
HOW TO LOOK AFTER YOURS.
ROB PARTRIDGE
During this session I’ll explain why I talk on mental health, why I think it’s important and how you can look after yours. WARNING: I do not talk about it extensively but there is a mention of child, domestic and sexual abuse. I am available after sessions to talk should people wish to do so.

PREP
FOR IRELAND
ROBBIE LAWLOR
Simon Harris and Leo Varadkar have both promised a free PrEP rollout programme for early 2019. PrEP or Pre-exposure Prophylaxis is an HIV drug given to HIV negative people to stop them from getting HIV if they are exposed to the virus. This is a game changer, especially during Ireland’s HIV crisis. This workshop will discuss the PrEP rollout programme and what each university/person should do to optimise PrEP uptake.

BE YOU
STEPHANIE FOGARTY
Here we look at what makes you well... you! “You are not perfect due to your imperfections but those same imperfections are what makes you perfect!” Come along and let’s be perfectly imperfect together.

DOM'ING
AN LGBTQ+ SOCIETY
DEAN O'REILLY
Believe it or not, you can be sub AND dom all-in-one! Dom’ing an LGBTQ+ Society will explore all aspects of running LGBTQ+ societies in university, how to get involved, and common issues that societies face. Expect an interactive, open workshop open to any and all questions on LGBTQ+ society life.
WORKSHOPS

FEMINISM:
SPOKEN WORD MEETS VINYL
ANNIE HOEY
What does feminism mean to you? Burning bras, equality, patriarchy... you tell us!

Is there a poem that perfectly encapsulates feminism for you? Have you heard a song that resonates with you and you just need to share it with others? Perhaps you have written a piece of prose yourself and want to share it in a safe space of friendly feminists? Then come along to a space where you can express what feminism means to you through a medium of your choice: poem, song, stories or vinyl. Performance is also welcome—indeed, it is encouraged! Alternatively, you can come into this space to sit and experience the feminist understandings of your Pink Training friends (no participation necessary).

Note: spaces for this session are limited to 20. Participation is not required. 3 minute maximum per participant. Record player and audio facilities will be provided.

COMHRÁ LE SEÁN Ó BAIOILL
(BILINGUAL)
SEÁN Ó BAIOILL
Actor and BBC presenter Seán Ó Baíoll plays reformed bad boy Adam on TG4’s Irish language soap, Ros na Rún, which broadcast the first ever gay kiss on Irish TV 22 years ago. Seán discusses both his personal and professional experiences in the industry and the portrayal of the LGBTQ community. Join Seán for a relaxed talk and Q&A session.

SELF-CARE
GILLIAN MCINERNEY
This is a low key session, comprising of colouring and a group chat about what kinds of self care we find helpful. By the end of the session we will have a list of resources, activities, and advice that participants have found work well as self care activities. Colouring materials provided.

BODILY AUTONOMY
IN A QUEER SPHERE - DISCUSSION
DAVY QUINLIVAN
Bodily autonomy is a term most people in Ireland are familiar with in light of the 2018 referendum on repealing the 8th. People are rightfully fighting for inclusive language for the legislation so that any person capable of getting pregnant has the right to access healthcare.

However, as queer people, this term applies to other facets of our lives. This discussion hopes to open up dialogue around all elements of autonomy for queer bodies, from access to hormones, to sex work, to the availability of PrEP (Pre-Exposure Prophylaxis).

COMING OUT
WORKSHOP / DISCUSSION
DAVY QUINLIVAN
Coming out is often perceived as a ‘one-off’ event when discussed in hetero-normative circles. Queer people experience coming out in many different ways, and often repeatedly, throughout their lives. This workshop aims to allow people a safe space to tell their stories, ask advice, and/or listen to other people’s experiences and realities.

AN FOCLÓIR AITEACH
(THE QUEER DICTIONARY)
LAOGHAIR NÍ CHOISTEALBHÁIS
This session comprises a short history of LGBTQIA+ identities in the Irish language, misconceptions about the Irish language and Catholic conservatism, and a description of the development of An Foclóir Aiteach/The Queer Dictionary in 2018. The purpose of the session will be to question the function of language, especially in minority contexts, and to further explore the boundaries of LGBTQIA+ discourse and identity within the Irish language. The session will be conducted through English, although questions and engagement is most welcome trí Ghaeilge. Fáilte roimh chách! All welcome.
